

Scott Foresman

Reading

Surprise Me!

Doggy Art

by David McPhail

One day Jill painted a picture.
Then she went outside to play.
She left her paints on the living room floor.

Along came Jill's dog, Rudy.
Rudy sat down beside the paints.
His tail was in the paint. Rudy wagged his tail. His tail painted a picture.

Rudy thought painting was fun.
Rudy painted another picture. There was no more paper so he painted on the rug.

Rudy kept painting. He painted a flower on a chair.

After that, he painted a tree and some clouds on the sofa. When Jill's mother came home, Rudy went out.

Jill's mother went into the living room. What she found almost made her shout.

Jill came in. "Do you like my painting?" she asked her mother.

"Did you paint the rug?" asked Jill's mother. "And the sofa and the chair?"

"No," Jill said, "just this picture."

Jill's mother went to the door.
"Rudy!" she called.

Rudy came into the house. Rudy was covered with paint.

"Now I know who painted the rug and the chair and the sofa," Jill's mother said.

"Maybe Rudy thinks he is an artist," said Jill.

"Maybe," thought Jill's mother, and she laughed. Jill laughed too.

Then she helped her mother clean the living room. Jill knew Rudy needed cleaning too. So after that, Rudy took a bath.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Story: Doggy Art

Skill: Listen and respond to directions to write complete interrogative (what Questions) sentences of varying lengths based on either main characters, character traits or setting. (L/S 3.3)

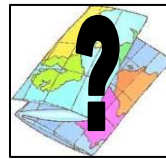

Instructions: Select the correct interrogative sentence which answers the sentence in the blue box. Use you communicator device to answer.

One day Jill painted a picture.

What does Jill do one day?

Where he wagged his tail?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Story: Doggy Art

Skill: Listen and respond to directions to write complete interrogative (who Questions) sentences of varying lengths based on either main characters, character traits or setting. (L/S 3.3)

Instructions: Select the correct interrogative sentence which answers the sentence in the blue box. Use you communicator device to answer.

Rudy    wagged his    tail.

Who wagged his tail?

Where he wagged his tail?

Name: _____ Date: _____

Story: Doggy Art

Skill: Listen and respond to directions to write complete interrogative (where questions) sentences of varying lengths based on either main characters, character traits or setting. (L/S 3.3)

Instructions: Select the correct interrogative sentence which answers the sentence in the blue box. Use you communicator device to answer.

She left her paints on the living room floor.

Where did

Jill leave her paints?

Who is

Jill's

mother?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Story: Doggy Art

Skill: Listen and respond to directions to write complete interrogative (how questions) sentences of varying lengths based on either main characters, character traits or setting. (L/S 3.3)

Instructions: Select the correct interrogative sentence which answers the sentence in the blue box. Use you communicator device to answer.

His tail painted a picture.

How

Rudy

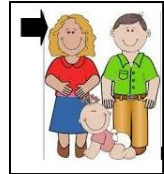

painted a picture?

Who

is Jill's

mother?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Story: Doggy Art

Skill: Listen and respond to directions to write complete interrogative (when questions) sentences of varying lengths based on either main characters, character traits or setting. (L/S 3.3)

Instructions: Select the correct interrogative sentence which answers the sentence in the blue box. Use your communicator device to answer.

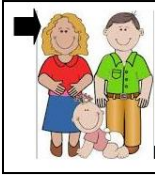

When did Rudy take a bath?

Ruddy wagged a tail.

After Jill helped her mother clean the living room.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Story: Doggy Art

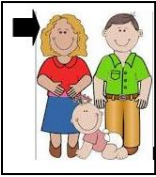

Skill: Listen and respond to directions to write complete interrogative (who questions) sentences of varying lengths based on either main characters, character traits or setting. (L/S 3.3)

Instructions: Select the correct interrogative sentence which answers the sentence in the blue box. Use your communicator device to answer.

Who wagged his tail.

Rudy wagged his tail.

Who is Jill's mother?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Story: Doggy Art

Skill: Listen and respond to directions to write complete interrogative (how questions) sentences of varying lengths based on either main characters, character traits or setting. (L/S 3.3)

Instructions: Select the correct interrogative sentence which answers the sentence in the blue box. Use your communicator device to answer.

|   |   |  |
|---|---|--|
|  |  |  |
| How did   | Rudy  | paint a picture?.  |

|   |   |
|---|---|
|  |  |
| His tail painted a picture.   |   |
|  |   |

|   |   |
|---|---|
|  |  |
| One day Jill painted a picture.   |   |
|  |   |

Name: _____ Date: _____

Story: Doggy Art

Identify setting (R.3.4)

Instructions: Identify where Doggy painted his pictures. Make your answer using your communicator device.

The yard

The sofá

Name: _____

Date: _____

Story: Doggy Art

Identify main character (R 3.4)

Identify character traits (R3.4)

Instructions: Identify the main character and his trait of the story Doggy Art. Make your answer using your communicator device.

Doggy is brown.

Doggy is black.

